- A beautifully illustrated volume showcasing residential designs across North America, with a special focus on artful interiors, the craftsmanship and the dynamics at play within each home
- Spectacularly presented throughout with stunning full-colour photographs, detailed plans and diagrams, and thoughtful commentary and insight into the details and process behind the designs
- The third in a series of monographs on McInturff's luscious homes, also featured In Detail (2001) and In Residence (2007)
- McInturff Architects are renowned for their innovative and creative zeal and have been awarded hundreds of awards for their beautiful, stylish houses

For this book, McInturff's fourth with IMAGES, award-winning McInturff Architects takes us on a tour About the House. Going room by room, space by space, complete with beautiful photographs, the architects walk us through their latest work, celebrating craft, light, and site. Looking back and looking forward, this book summarises many lessons learned over 30 years of thinking About the House.

McInturff Architects, founded in 1986, is based in Bethesda, Maryland, dedicated to the making of modern, highly crafted residential, commercial and small institutional projects. The firm has received more than 320 design awards, including three AIA Institute Honor Awards, two for Interior Architecture and one for Urban Design. The projects have been frequently published, locally, nationally, and internationally, and are the subject of three monographs, In Detail: McInturff Architects (2001), In Residence: McInturff Architects (2007), and In House: McInturff Architects (2013), all by Images Publishing.
