• Projects featured reflect Mission Revival and Beaux-Arts Classicism
• Hundreds of rich colour photographs, renderings and plans make this book an invaluable sourcebook
• Book looks at the firm’s work to date

During its first decade, Harrison Design Associates has become a leader in the field of classical and traditional design. With offices in Georgia and California, its projects range in style from Mission Revival to magnificent Beaux-Arts Classicism. This volume is a detailed exploration of the firm’s works to date. With rich colour photographs, site renderings and plans, the reader visually tours the featured homes and shares the beauty of life in well-designed spaces. The variety of materials and sites will delight all who are interested in architecture.
