This book showcases high-quality children's book designs from various countries, covering a wide variety of styles. It presents not only beautiful, cute, and dynamic illustrations, but also a wide range of layout features. There are more than 70 works from all around the world, including pop-up books, picture books, audio books, and activity books - among many others. Most of the designers featured in this superb compilation have many years of experience and have published many acclaimed works. This publication is dedicated to helping students and designers find inspiration and improve their skills in children's book design. The majority of works included here have been designed over the last two or three years, so fully reflect recent trends and market demands.
